Gospel Reflections

LIVING GOD'S COMMANDS

The first reading forms part of Moses' farewell discourse, a call to the people to return to God. It is not a legalistic summons; rather, it is an appeal to heart and soul. It outlines a command that is not impossible to follow, too difficult to undertake, or too expensive. Look into your hearts, says Moses; there you will find what to do.

Paul sees Jesus Christ as the image of God, the agent of creation and preservation. We sense, in his words, things profound: “dominions or principalities or powers.” But in the midst of that, Paul keeps his attention on Jesus Christ, head of the Church. It is in Christ that we find fullness and reconciliation—in the blood of the cross.

Luke's Gospel illustrates the double commandment of love with the story of the Good Samaritan. The story is a radical one, for it comes to focus on the question of who my “neighbor” is. That neighbor is not identified with any group, but rather by the scope of our compassion.

“COFFEE WITH THE PADRE”

NEWS FLASH: Beginning this month, our “Coffee with the Padre” will be held only on the first Sunday of each month. Everyone is invited for coffee, donuts and fellowship in the parish hall from 9 AM to 10 AM. If you have not had the opportunity to help, pick the month and group that you would like to help from the “Monthly Host Schedule” on the bulletin board and call the contact person to let them know. We are looking for 24 couples or individuals to volunteer for at least once a year. Many thanks to our July host, the Rosary Cenacle Prayer Group, and host helpers. August's host will be the Altar Society. Special thanks to all who participate in making our morning parish socials so enjoyable. Your participation is very much appreciated.

I don't have wealth, nor have I fame.
All that I have is my good name.
And in the end the world can see,
That my good name means a lot to me.
