*WHY were the saints, saints? Because they were cheerful when it was difficult to be cheerful, patient when it was difficult to be patient, and because they pushed on when they wanted to stand still, kept silent when they wanted to talk, and were agreeable when they wanted to be disagreeable.
That is all. It was quite simple and always will be.*

NOTE: If anyone is homebound and would like to receive the Sacraments, please call church office.

Gospel Reflections

A PERSONAL RESPONSE OF FAITH

Today's Gospel starts with a conversation with which Jesus begins his journey to Jerusalem—and the cross. As his followers, we strive to march with him, even to the cross.

Paul's Letter to the Galatians tells us that we who have been baptized have "clothed" ourselves with Christ. Being one with Christ, we must no longer discriminate according to nationality or race, social status or gender.

The prophet Zechariah, centuries before anyone heard of Jesus, spoke of how the people find God's message uncomfortable and so turn against the messengers. Later, the people awaken to the realization of what they have done and are moved to repentance. Thus they are always welcomed back by God, who always gives us grace to do the right thing, however difficult it may be.

"COFFEE WITH THE PADRE"

Our hosts for June are Parish and Finance Council members. Everyone is invited for good food and fellowship in IM Hall from 9 AM to 10 AM on the first and third Sunday of each month. To help, sign the schedule sheet in the vestibule.

ATTENTION* ~ If anyone knows of someone who is interested in playing the organ or piano for our liturgical celebrations, please call the office.

THE PRESENCE OF GOD - In all our thoughts and actions we ought to remember the presence of God, and account all lost in which we think not of God.

What may be – may be not,
What is – is now
